Preparation Required

At Envoy, we believe that negotiation provides the world's most versatile skillset. Whether you're practicing diplomacy in Model United Nations, or rehearsing a persuasive public speech, we can take your performance to the next level.

Personalised Coaching

Everyone has a different background and a unique skillset, so why settle for group seminars? We provide coaching targeted to your strengths, weaknesses, and personal learning style.

World-Class Experience

From top honours at Harvard WorldMUN, to knockout rounds in Australian debating championships... we know what it takes to succeed, and pass that on directly to you.

Proven Track Record

We've trained students who have gone on to win top honours at national competitions in their chosen extracurriculars — and we're still getting better!

Supported Extracurriculars

We currently specialise in training for the following extracurriculars, based on our personal achievements within them:

Model United Nations

Debating

Public Speaking

Our extracurricular training is best presented in workshop format for ~30 students.

Personal Coaching

We also provide general coaching to students at a discounted rate. While we specialise in negotiation training, we also provide coaching on related skillsets — such as building confidence in social situations, or preparing for job interviews.

- » Marketing tools used to subconsciously influence others to accept your views
- » Leading, not lamenting – convincing others by presenting a final call to action

- » Free development of custom workshops, for no extra fee
- » Flexibility in number of students, staff-to-student ratio, and workshop length
- » Free consultation meetings to decide whether single or recurring workshops suit best
- » Supplementary or stand-alone materials, for either home or class based use
